NATIONAL INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES DAY

This day invites us to reflect on the reasons behind the disappearance of many languages, including the effects of residential schools. It encourages us to champion the preservation and revitalization of these precious languages.

MMIW AWARENESS DAY

The National Day of Remembrance, action, and advocacy shines a powerful light on the urgent crisis of missing and murdered Indigenous women, girls, and two spirit people (MMIWG2S), calling us to remember, act, and demand change.
